- (c) The Grievance Redressal Officer (GRO) of MUDRA will take steps to redress the grievances with care and diligence, normally within the period of 21 working days from the date of receipt of the complaints.

(d) If the complainant is not satisfied with the reply / action / resolution given by Grievance Redressal Officer (GRO), he / she may directly approach the Chief Grievance Redressal Officer (CGRO), MUDRA for further action on the same.

(e) Anonymous complaints will not be entertained.

(f) The Grievance redressal mechanism is demonstrated in flow chart in the Appendix 1 hereto.

1. Internal Machinery to handle Customer complaints / grievances

6.1 Customer Service Cell (CSC)

- (i) The Customer Service Cell (CSC) will be the first point of contact for the customers in most of the cases. CSC will be responsible to receive the complaint of customers by whatever means, i.e., in person, post, mail, etc. If the complaints are lodged through CPGRAM, it will be passed on to CSC for necessary action. Similarly, the complaints received by MUDRA Nodal officers / Alternate Nodal Officers will also be forwarded to CSC with related documents / enclosures (if any) for early resolution on the next working day of receipt of the complaint.
- (ii) CSC will provide an acknowledgment for the complaint received from the customer within 5 working days of the receipt, and also make necessary entries in the Customer Grievance Register (CGR) which shall include but without limitation to, full details of the complainant (name, address, and contact details), date of receipt, fact of the complaint, category of complaint etc.

6.2 The Grievance Redressal Officer

- (a) MUDRA will designate a GRO, not below the rank of AGM at its corporate office. GRO will have the responsibilities of ensuring early resolution of complaints.
- (b) GRO will first examine the nature of the Complaint and initiate necessary action to address the complaint to the satisfaction of the complainant. He / She will also ensure to record the action initiated or taken in the CGR along with the status of the complaint- resolved / unresolved or escalated to next level, as the case may be.
- (c) GRO will circulate the monthly Action Taken Report on all the complaints received, within 7 working days of the next month to the Chief Grievance Redressal Officer MUDRA for information / guidance.

6.3 The Chief Grievance Redressal Officer (CGRO)

- (i) MUDRA will designate a Chief Grievance Redressal Officer (CGRO), not below the rank of Deputy General Manager (DGM), at its Corporate office.
- (ii) If the GRO feels that it is not possible at his / her level to resolve the complaint or he / she wishes to seek further guidance on the matter, he / she may forward the complaint along with related documents (if any) and his / her recommendations to the Chief Grievance Redressal Officer (CGRO) of MUDRA, for his guidance and final settlement / resolution of the Complaint.
- (iii) Customer may directly approach and appeal to CGRO, MUDRA within 15 days of decision / solution / reply provided by GRO, in case he / she is not satisfied with the decision / solution / reply of GRO.
- (iv) CGRO may take up the complaints received by him directly from the customers or the GRO, who may escalate the matter at the request of the Customer, re-examine the issue and take necessary steps to resolve the matter.
- (v) He will provide necessary guidance / solution, to the complainant or CGRO as the case may be and resolve the same within a reasonable time, with possible solution as deemed expedient to him.

2. Time Frame

- (a) The Complaints received will be analyzed from all possible angles. All efforts will be made to resolve each complaint received generally within the stipulated time as per the following escalation matrix:

Level	Official	No. of working days
First	Grievance Redressal Officer	21
Second	Chief Grievance Redressal Officer	30

- (b) There may be some complaints which require deeper analysis from all possible angles which may cause delayed resolution of the complaint. In such cases, MUDRA will try to resolve the grievances at the earliest depending on the nature of the case. Such delay in addressing the complaint beyond the prescribed time limit shall be conveyed to the complainant along with reasons for the same.

- (c) If the resolution of the complaint is delayed beyond 30 days of receipt, or the complainant is not satisfied with the reasons of delay conveyed to him / her, he / she may appeal to the Officer-in-Charge of the Regional Office of Department of Non-Banking Supervision (DNBS) of RBI, Mumbai within whose jurisdiction the registered office of MUDRA is situated.

3. Reporting to Board of Directors

Summary of the customer grievance reports along with actions initiated would be reported to the Board at least once in a year.

The report shall contain information like, the total no. of complaints received, disposed off and pending, with reasons thereof, which will be placed before the Board for information / guidance.

4. Mandatory display at the offices

At the operational level, MUDRA shall ensure to display the following information prominently, for the benefit of its customers, at its places of business:

(a) the name and contact details (Telephone / Mobile nos. / email address) of the Grievance Redressal Officer who can be approached by the customer for resolution of complaints against MUDRA.

(b) If the complaint / dispute is not redressed within a period of one month, the customer may appeal to the Officer-in-Charge of the Regional Office of Department of Non-Banking Supervision (DNBS) of RBI, under whose jurisdiction the registered office of the MUDRA falls.

5. Interaction with customers

MUDRA recognizes that customer's expectations / requirements / grievances can be better appreciated through personal interaction with customers and publicity of grievance redressal machinery by placing them on its website / its offices at the regional level / corporate office.

6. Sensitizing operating staff for improvement in service & handling complaints

MUDRA deals with customers from different segments, which may give rise to difference of opinion and areas of friction. MUDRA understands the importance of sensitizing staff to handle customer complaints / grievances with courtesy, empathy and promptness. MUDRA shall also conduct training programmes regularly for staff on customer services and minimizing grievances. Imparting soft skills required for handling customers, would be an integral part of the training programmes.
